

All women: The participants posing for a group photo before the start of the championships.

Women golfers raise RM3,000

Money goes to Cervical Cancer Awareness Association

THE amount may be small but the RM3,000 raised at the Braun Buffel Pargolf for women golf challenge played at the Kelab Golf Sultan Abdul Aziz Shah was significant when donated to the Cervical Cancer Awareness Association (Cares).

ParGolf, the organisers of the women's-only golf championships, had contributed the amount based on the number of pars and birdies achieved in the championships.

A total of 113 participants, including players from Singapore and Sarawak, took part in the championships.

South Korean Kim Do Yeen won the A Medal with a score of 67. second was Mary Choo on 71 and Leow Mee Yek was third on 75.

In the B Medal, Roselind Nelly was the winner. Nelly and Wong Kam Yok returned with identical scores of 76 but after a countback the former was declared the champion.

In third place was Marina Gan on

»I really did not expect such a good turnout. It is wonderful to see these women having a heart for charity«

CHEW JOO YIE

77.

Three participants - Janice Teh Hwee Tiang, Lee Joo Yee and Angeline Phua - shot similar 70 in the C Medal. After a countback, they finished in that order.

Braun Buffel's Chew Joo Yie, the assistant general manager of Lianbee-

Jeco, the distributors of the Braun Buffel brand in Malaysia, was pleasantly surprised by the amazing turnout.

"I really did not expect such a good turnout. It is wonderful to see these women having a heart for charity.

"We will definitely participate again as the title sponsor when the opportunity arises," said Chew.

The other sponsors were Seresis, Tag Heuer, Kanebo, Cross Creek, TaylorMade-adidas, Isomax and Home Soy, Vital-Ion, PrimaNora Medical Centre and Club Car.

Contact us:

If you have any interesting community-based sport events lined up in the Klang Valley, please fax the details to Metro Sport at 03-79554039 or email tp.metrosp@thestar.com.my